

Living Through and Acknowledging Disruption: Envisioning Ethnography of Resilience in the Era of Multiple Crises

Colloquium organised by Michal Šípoš and Luděk Brož at the Academic Conference Centre

When?

12 September 2023

Where?

Akademické konferenční centrum – AKC (Husova 4, Praha 1)

Programme

13.00–13.05 Welcome by the Organisers

13.05–14.15 Keynote Presentation

Lotte Segal: Knowledge that Hurts

(chair – Michal Šípoš)

14.15–14.30 break

14.30–16.00 Unravelling Disruptions: Insights from Ethnographic Studies

Zdenka Sokolíčková: Researching Resilience with Child Migrants while Mothering in the Field

Iliana Sarafian: Autoethnography as a Method in Times of Crisis

Michal Šípoš: Embodying and Imagining the Grief of War Refugees: On the Significance of Loss

in Ethnographic Practice

(chair – Luděk Brož)

16.00–16.20 break

16.20–17.15 Interactive Workshop: Thinking on Ethnographic Methodologies in the Era of Multiple Crises

(discussants – Duško Petrović and Luděk Brož)

Zoom link to join online

meeting ID: 957 1738 3466

passcode: 574992

This colloquium is supported by the NPO "Systemic Risk Institute" no. LX22NPO5101, funded by European Union - Next Generation EU (Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports, NPO: EXCELES).

